Basis of interest rate

The fixed annual interest rate of 6.0% under the Entrusted Loan Extension Agreement III was negotiated on an arm's length basis between the Company and Kunming Development based on (1) the fact that the interest rate under the Entrusted Loan Extension Agreement III was up by 2.9% as compared to the prime rate of 3.1% for 1-year loans denominated in RMB promulgated by the National Interbank Funding Center as at 21 April 2025; (2) prevailing market interest rate and practices; (3) the returns of the Company within a reasonable range; and (4) the Company's assessment on the business conditions and creditworthiness of Kunming Development.

2. REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE ENTRUSTED LOAN EXTENSION TRANSACTION III

As of the date of this announcement, Kunming Development has settled all the interest payable pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Entrusted Loan Contract and the Original Entrusted Loan Extension Agreements. By entering into the Entrusted Loan Extension Agreement III, it will increase the interest income of the Company and at the same time facilitate the cooperation between the Group and Kunming Development in innovative financing models. The interest rate of the entrusted loan under the Entrusted Loan Extension Agreement III is 6.0% per annum, and the entering into of the Entrusted Loan Extension Agreement III will generate an interest income of approximately RMB11.0 million for the Company. At the same time, the relevant provisions regarding early repayment under the Entrusted Loan Contract remain applicable to the Entrusted Loan Extension Agreement III and, hence, the Company is entitled to negotiate with Kunming Development regarding early repayment of the entrusted loan if it sees appropriate.

Mr. Ong King Keung, the Director, abstained from voting and Ms. Cheng Yijing, the Director, voted against the resolution at the Board meeting. Mr. Ong King Keung abstained from voting mainly because he considered that the entrusted loan was not within the scope of the principal business of the Company. The main reason for Ms. Cheng Yijing to vote against the resolution is her view that consideration should be given to investing more capital in the Company's principal business. For the above reasons, all Directors (other than Mr. Ong King Keung and Ms. Cheng Yijing (the "Dissenting Directors")) believe that the Entrusted Loan Extension Transaction III is entered into on normal commercial terms, and is fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole.

All Directors of the Board have given due and careful consideration to the Entrusted Loan Extension Transaction III and the opinions of the Dissenting Directors. All Directors of the Board other than the Dissenting Directors were of the unanimous view that although the Entrusted Loan Extension Transaction III is not the principal business of the Company, based on the Company's business plan and use of funds, the Entrusted Loan Extension Transaction III can generate revenue for the Company and facilitate the cooperation between the Group and Kunming Development in innovative financing models. In addition, the relevant provisions relating to the early repayment of the entrusted loan under the Entrusted Loan Contract are still applicable to the Entrusted Loan Extension Agreement III, therefore, the Company has the right to negotiate with Kunming Development for the early repayment of the entrusted loan as it deems appropriate.

3. FINANCIAL IMPACT

The Entrusted Loan Extension Transaction III does not involve the release of new funds and the principal amount granted under the entrusted loan has been reflected in the Company's audited consolidated financial statements as of 31 December 2022, 31 December 2023 and 31 December 2024. The term of the Entrusted Loan Extension Transaction III is 11 months and is expected to generate revenue of approximately RMB11.0 million.
